Sir Colin Anderson, who has been our Chairman since January 1957, resigned in July 1960 on becoming Chairman of the Tate Trustees. Sir Colin has been a most wonderful Chairman. He has devoted his great knowledge, taste and enthusiasm to the interests of the Society and we have greatly benefited. We shall miss him very much, and I know that you would wish me on your behalf to thank Sir Colin for the help and inspiration he has given us during these years. Sir Colin has kindly agreed to remain on the Committee, so I hope that we shall have the benefit of his wise advice for a long time to come.

I was elected to the Chairmanship and was happy to accept, particularly as Mr Anthony Lousada, who has a wide knowledge and experience of these matters, consented to become Deputy Chairman. I shall very much rely on his help and guidance during my period of office. Mr Lousada and I have agreed to serve for a term of three years.

The Chairman's task is greatly eased by the able assistance received from our splendid Secretary, Miss Pauline Vogelpoel. Miss Vogelpoel should be thanked for many things, but in particular for making such a success of our evening parties. The Picasso Party, for example, made a very useful contribution towards our funds.

This year, the Society celebrated its fiftieth anniversary, and in order to commemorate this important occasion, we organised an exhibition called 'The First Fifty Years' which was held at the Tate Gallery from 1st April to 8th May.

This exhibition, the largest we have ever put together, served to illustrate the extent and quality of our gifts to member galleries during the period 1910-1959. Some 36 member galleries, including the Tate Gallery (to whom we are most grateful for housing our exhibition), the Victoria and Albert Museum and the British Museum lent some two hundred works, which included oils, water-colours, drawings and sculpture.

The Exhibition Sub-Committee must be thanked and congratulated for their hard work and careful selection from so many sources. I would also like to thank member galleries who so willingly lent works to the Exhibition as well as those who, although unable to lend pictures, helped in other ways. We would have liked to include works presented to overseas galleries, but the distance and expense involved did not make this practical. Seven thousand people saw the Exhibition in London and thousands more when it visited Hull, Huddersfield, Manchester, Preston, Bradford and Bristol.

Mr Raymond Mortimer's admirable Foreword brought out the interesting fact that the Tate Gallery received its first examples of works by Augustus John, Sickert, Paul Nash, Stanley Spencer, Epstein and Gauguin from the Society. We also made a contribution towards the acquisition of the Tate's first Picasso.

A great deal of work was involved in mounting an Exhibition of the size of 'The First Fifty Years'. I hope, therefore, that the Secretary will be forgiven for not having organised quite as many 'occasions' as usual. We did, however, provide members with a chance to see the Picasso Exhibition at a Special Viewing on the 13th July, which was attended by a record number of well over a thousand people. The Kaplan Gallery very kindly invited us to a Private View of the Leonor Fini Exhibition on the 2nd November, and on the 5th December, members had the unique opportunity of hearing Mr Bryan Robertson's excellent lecture on Henry Moore at the Whitechapel Art Gallery. The lecture, for which we are most grateful to Mr Robertson and the Trustees of the Whitechapel, was followed by an enjoyable party and the whole evening will be repeated on the 12th December. To end the year's activities, we will be having an Evening Party on 20th December to enable members to see the Whitney Collection at the Tate Gallery.

I would like to take this opportunity of thanking Sir John Rothenstein and the Trustees of the Tate Gallery for their continued hospitality and for helping us in so many ways throughout the year.

Next year, we plan several visits to interesting private collections in London and it is also hoped that a day trip to Amsterdam will be organised in early May.

In 1961 the purchases of the last two years will be presented to over one hundred member galleries, and the works will be exhibited beforehand to enable members and the public to see what we have bought.

I hope during the forthcoming year to examine the way we do things in order to see whether any changes are desirable in the light of present circumstances. I hope also to make a drive to increase membership so that we can augment our capacity to help member galleries, and generally expand our activities.

I would ask each member to help us by bringing in at least one new member during the year. Please give us your support in this way.

Treasurer's Report

The accounts I am presenting are for 1959, and in that year our income was once again more than £5,100 – only slightly below the record figure of 1958. £460 of this came from the provincial tour of our 'Religious Theme' exhibition and is, therefore, a non-recurring item, but on the other hand, it is particularly satisfactory that our subscriptions showed an increase of over £200 and, for the first time, exceeded £4,000. From these two items alone, one would have expected a substantial increase in our total income, but there is a reverse side of the picture.

You will remember that, in 1958, we used part of our reserves to buy pictures from the 'Religious Theme' exhibition. To do this, we had to realise some of our investments, and so the interest received in 1959 was less than in the previous year. Our benefactors, too, were less numerous than before, and as we had only two parties instead of three, it's not surprising that they produced less income.

With this £5,100, our Buyers spent about £3,000 on works of art, which is the same figure that they were allocated in each of the previous two years, and our general expenses amounted to £2,100, making a deficit for the year of £35.

These expenses were £600 more than in 1958. Over £200 of this was due to special charges, such as the redecoration of the offices and the printing of a new brochure, but there were some items that had remained at the same level for several years, and the inevitable increase in these is responsible for the balance.

It may seem surprising that it should cost over £2,000 to administer a Society whose total income only amounts to £5,100. However, it is only through the generosity of a number of people who charged us a reduced fee because of the nature of our work, that we are able to keep our expenses as low as they are. There is also the fact that when the basic subscription is only one guinea, it is inevitable that the work involved in collecting it should be out of all proportion to the sum in question, particularly as our members show a quite remarkable facility for not answering letters, and steadily refusing to sign a Banker's Order, in spite of my impassioned pleading in these annual statements. In fact, no one seems to take any notice of my pleas, whether for Banker's Orders, Deeds of Covenant, or higher subscriptions. So this year, I won't ask for anything new but simply echo the Chairman's appeal for still more members.

Balance Sheet

Report of the Auditors to the Members of the Contemporary Art Society

We have obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit. In our opinion proper books of account have been kept by the Society so far as appears from our examination of those books. We have examined the above Balance Sheet and annexed Revenue Account which are in agreement with the books of account. In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given us the said Accounts give the information required by the Companies Act, 1948, in the manner so required and the Balance Sheet gives a true and fair view of the state of the Society's affairs as at 31 December 1959 and the Revenue Account gives a true and fair view of the deficit for the year ended on that date.

Banker's Order and Deed of Covenant

The advantages of Signing a Banker's Order

For you:

You do not have to send your subscription each year — your bank does it for you. You do not risk falling to get invitations to parties because your subscription is overdue.

For us:

We get your subscription promptly which may avoid our paying overdraft charges.

We save the time, trouble and expense of sending you a reminder.

What is a Deed of Covenant?

It is only a formal promise to pay your subscription for the next seven years. But it means we can get back almost as much again in Tax from the Government.

Please complete both if you have not already done so.
