Chairman's Report 1963

My Report deals with the Society's activities for the year 1962 and also with 1963 up to the present date. It has been a period of great activity.

Our two buyers for 1962 were Lord Croft and Alan Bowness. They bought over 40 works, and from our funds we were able to allot them £2000 each. I am sure that members would be interested to know that as soon as the pictures that we have bought reach our offices, they are in many cases almost immediately sent out on loan to colleges, exhibitions and other places, pending their eventual allocation in the normal way. We have been very much impressed this last year by the growing interest and demand for these works. In many cases we receive a contribution from those to whom we loan these pictures, and this helps our funds.

On March 17th, 1962, members visited Lady Aberconway's magnificent collection in North Audley Street and we are most grateful to her for allowing so many of us the privilege. On 7th July, members spent a very enjoyable day in the country. In the late morning, Lord Faringdon very kindly took us around his house, Buscot Park, in Berkshire. Afterwards some were invited to visit Mr Peter Stucley at the Old Parsonage nearby, and others saw William Morris's house at Kelmscot. In the afternoon The Hon Mr and Mrs Michael Astor entertained large numbers of guests to a delicious tea at Bruern Abbey and here again members were able to see a fine collection of pictures and the house and gardens.

Another most interesting collection seen on November 7th was that of our Treasurer, Mr Peter Meyer, and his wife in Alexander Square. Here again members very much enjoyed seeing these pictures, the house, and meeting their hosts. To all these hosts for their generosity many, many thanks.

We held two successful evening parties during 1962. One for the Francis Bacon exhibition and the other for the Arts Council's Kokoschka exhibition. Well over 700 people attended each party. We are delighted that members supported these occasions so loyally because in doing so, not only do they enjoy themselves, but they help to swell our picture-buying coffers.

In October, the Organising Secretary took thirty fortunate members on a memorable three-week trip to Mexico. Whilst there, the group were well looked after by officials of the Bellas Artes Museum as well as by the Director General of Tourism and the British Council's representatives. This trip proved as successful as the American trip and though more ambitious and expensive we are happy to say that it was not run at a loss. 1963 has so far been extremely active. Our buyers this year are Mrs Heygate and Mr James Melvin. Once again we have been able to allocate them £2,000 each.

By far the most important event in our recent history has been the organisation of a simultaneous exhibition 'British Painting in the 60's' at the Tate and Whitechapel Galleries. We held an evening preview party at the Tate Gallery, and were most honoured that our Patron, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother, was able to join us on this occasion. Over 1,000 people attended and it was the most successful evening party that we have ever given. We were honoured at the Whitechapel Gallery by an informal visit by Her Royal Highness Princess Margaret and the Earl of Snowdon.

We are extremely indebted to John Sainsbury, Alan Bowness, Lord Croft and Bryan Robertson for acting as a sub-committee and for choosing those painters who, it was felt, should be asked to contribute. A total of 18,000 people visited the exhibition at the Tate and over 20,000 at the Whitechapel. We sold over 9,000 of what we hope you will agree was an extremely attractive catalogue.

A selection from the exhibition is now in Manchester and will later go to Glasgow and Hull. After this, due to the kindness of the British Petroleum Company, it will visit Zurich during the British Trade Fortnight. This is the first time that a CAS exhibition has been taken abroad. We are extremely grateful to British Petroleum for their imaginative and generous sponsorship which made this possible.

We have purchased £3,000 worth of pictures from the Exhibition and are providing grants to a total of £1,000 to assist member Galleries.

Quite recently we held a successful evening party to view the Ivon Hitchens Retrospective Exhibition. Over 650 people attended.

Dr Widdup, who died recently, but was for many years a member of the CAS, left us his entire collection of over 300 pictures, also his private house – subject to certain conditions. This collection, which is a most impressive one, includes fine examples of the works of many of the most important British painters.

In March we held the first of our architectural visits when we saw the Yorke, Rosenberg and Mardall's new building in Fetter Lane. Mr Rosenberg kindly arranged for his own pictures to be on view. We are grateful to the partners of this firm for having devoted a Saturday morning to show us around their new building. After lunch at the Forum Restaurant, which was opened especially for us, we saw the Golden Lane housing estate, and are grateful to Messrs Chamberlin, Powell and Bon for having arranged with the Corporation of London for us to visit this interesting development.

I am glad to say that despite the increase in fees, the membership of the Society has steadily increased – but not at anything like the rate I would have hoped. I do ask you, therefore, to assist us in any way you can to obtain even greater support for our work.

We are most grateful to the Trustees of the Tate Gallery and to Sir John Rothenstein for their kind and continual hospitality, also, of course, to the Trustees of the Whitechapel Gallery and to Mr Bryan Robertson for providing our exhibition with such a splendid setting.

I close in paying the warmest tribute to Miss Pauline Vogelpoel and her assistant, Miss Ballantyne, for their work during the course of the year. Miss Vogelpoel has worked tirelessly to promote the interests of the Society, and I trust that you will agree with me that her efforts have met with a very considerable measure of success.

Honorary Treasurer's Report for 1963 Annual General Meeting

I should start by reminding members that in 1962 we had two Meetings and presented two sets of Annual Accounts, so that now, for the first time, I have caught up with the Chairman and can present accounts covering the year which he deals with in his Report.

Last year we increased our subscriptions, but this was only done half way through the year and even so the results did not materialise as quickly as we had anticipated, largely due to members' habitual reluctance to reply promptly to the notices we send them, coupled with the inevitable difficulties involved in changing Bankers Orders, etc. The result is that subscriptions only rose from £4,478 to £5,164 and the full effect of the change will not be seen until the year we are now in.

With regard to the remainder of our income, there was a slight increase in bequests and donations and also in the interest earned by our reserves, but this was more than offset by the reduced proceeds of parties. I think members will all agree that our parties were no less successful in 1962 than in the previous year, but then the proceeds were swollen by the unusual and unexpected profit made on the New York trip. All in all therefore, our income was only about £600 higher than in 1961.

Our expenses as usual have risen but on this occasion only by £128 and even this figure is not a strictly accurate one, in that £69 of it is attributable to an under estimate in the cost of the Annual Report, coupled with an increased figure to allow for a possible slight deficiency in the current year's estimate.

However, the most striking feature of the Revenue Account is the fact that we allocated to our buyers a total of £4,000. This is far and away the biggest figure that we have ever spent on normal purchases and is a happy augury of what I hope we can expect when our new rate of subscriptions is fully operative. When we allocated this sum at the beginning of 1962, it was in the hope that our subscription income would be considerably higher. By November we realised that the result would be a deficit, but we nevertheless decided that it was right to budget for this, in view of the profit of over £700 which had been made in each of the previous two years. In the event, we overspent by £310, but I am sure that members will agree that this was the proper thing to do under the circumstances.

The only item in the Balance Sheet to which I should call your attention is one which I anticipated in my last Report, namely, the transfer of our undated War Stock into medium-dated Stock. The resulting loss had already been fully provided for and now for the first time for very many years, the market value of our investments stands at a higher figure than the cost. Subscriptions have figured largely in this Report, and I would ask members to pay them as promptly as possible. Sending out constant reminders, costs us a great deal of time and, more important, money, which we could better spend in buying pictures. And, though it may surprise our party-goers, this, after all, is the main purpose of our existence.

The advantages of signing a Banker's Order

For you: You do not have to send your subscription each year – your bank does it for you. You do not risk failing to get invitations to parties because your subscription is overdue.

For us: We get your subscription promptly which may avoid our paying overdraft charges. We save the time, trouble and expense of sending you a reminder.

What is a Deed of Covenant?

It is only a formal promise to pay your subscription for the next seven years. But it means we can get back almost as much again in tax from the Government.

Please complete both if you have not already done so

Deed of Covenant I.....

Report of the Auditors to the members of the Contemporary Art Society

We have examined the foregoing Balance Sheet and Revenue Account and have obtained all the information and explanations which we considered necessary. In our opinion proper books of account have been kept by the Society and the Balance Sheet and Revenue Account, which are in agreement therewith, comply with the Companies Act, 1948, and respectively give a true and fair view of the state of the Society's affairs at 31 December, 1962, and of the surplus for the year ended on that date.
