Chairman's Report 23 June 1964

My report to you covers the period from our last Annual General Meeting, held on July 16th 1963, up until today.

May I first of all apologise for the fact that our Report for the previous year has only just been dispatched to you. This was because our Organising Secretary, Miss Pauline Vogelpoel, and her assistant have been greatly overloaded with current problems, the planning and supervision of trips, and the setting up of exhibitions. Consequently other things have had to suffer.

Our buyers last year were Mrs Heygate and Mr Melvin, who between them bought 35 pictures. Our two buyers for this year are Sir John Rothenstein and Dr Kenneth Marsh, and we have been able to allot them the sum of £2,000 each.

On July 28th last year we had a very pleasant day in Northamptonshire and Leicestershire visiting the private collections of Sir Michael Culme-Seymour at Rockingham Castle, Mrs Kessler at Preston and Mr Guy Dixon at Melton Mowbray. Two bus-loads set off from London very early in the morning, to be joined later by several members in their own cars. Sir Michael Culme-Seymour very kindly allowed us to eat our picnic lunches in his beautiful gardens at Rockingham. Even a puncture on the M1 on the way back did not spoil what was generally agreed to be a delightful day. We are most grateful to all our hosts for so generously allowing us to visit them,

In September, in response to popular demand, we organised a very successful trip to the Soviet Union. Five days were spent in Leningrad, where the party were able to spend a considerable time in the Hermitage Museum, as well as many others. In the surrounding countryside they saw the fine restorations to the summer palaces, and visited Novgorod. During the stay in Leningrad, arrangements were made for the party to visit three Society artists in their studios. A lively discussion took place in a most friendly atmosphere. Five days were then spent in Moscow during which the Tretyakov, Pushkin and Kremlin museums were seen, and a visit made to Moscow's largest art school, the Stroganov. The Counsellor at the British Embassy very kindly entertained the party one evening. Outside Moscow, the Monastery of Zagorsk was visited, as well as country-house museums, and the last few days of the trip were spent in Kiev, where several meetings with artists were arranged. Miss Vogelpoel was fortunate to have with her as unofficial guide Miss Mary Chamot of the Tate Gallery, who speaks Russian and is an expert on Russian art.

On October 15th, we held one of our successful parties, so that over 700 members and their guests could see the Arts Council's Soutine/Modigliani Exhibition at the Tate Gallery.

In November Mr and Mrs Philip Goldberg very kindly allowed members to visit their fine collection of pictures and sculpture at their flat in Davies Street, and this was very much appreciated and enjoyed by all who were able to take advantage of the invitation.

Early this year we had two very successful informal evenings at the Whitechapel Art Gallery. In February, Bryan Robertson gave a most interesting lecture to members during the Rauschenberg Exhibition, and in March members and their guests very much enjoyed the "Young Painters Symposium" which we organised during the preview of the Stuyvesant Foundation Exhibition "The New Generation". Both occasions were over-subscribed and extremely popular, and we hope that many more such functions may be arranged at the Whitechapel. We are particularly grateful to Bryan Robertson for allowing us to make these arrangements and for his brilliant contribution,

At the end of March this year, the Organising Secretary took a group of thirty most fortunate members to the Far East. This proved a highly successful trip. During the three weeks, our members visited Thailand, Cambodia, Hong Kong and Japan. One of the outstanding events was the visit to the ruined cities at Angkor Wat in Cambodia, which the party succeeded in reaching despite local political difficulties. Here they spent four days studying the wonders of Khmer architecture and sculpture. In Japan, the party were most fortunate in having their itinerary carefully planned to cover the most interesting examples of art and architecture, including a brief glimpse of the famous Genji scroll in Nagoya. We are most grateful to the British Council's representative in Japan who gave us so much help and excellent advice. In Osaka, the Gutai Group, Japan's leading avant-garde group of fourteen painters arranged a special viewing of their centre in an historic old warehouse. The artists were there to greet the members, and seemed delighted that we had come to see them. In Kurasiki, members saw the incredibly fine collection of Western painting in the O'Hara Gallery, and also magnificent examples of Leach and Hamada pottery. One of the architectural highlights of the trip was the visit to the Town Hall at Takamatsu on the Inland Sea. Here the party were shown this famous example of the work of Professor Tange, one of Japan's leading architects. The Governor of the Prefecture acted as guide and took great pride in introducing the party to the lacquer ware, stone carving and papier mâché work for which the Province is famous.

On April 21st we held a Preview Party to see the important Gulbenkian Exhibition. Unfortunately we had to limit the attendance to 400, which resulted in our being heavily oversubscribed. I am sorry that so many people were disappointed. Only last week we held a second party, on an informal basis, for the benefit of those members who missed the first occasion.

In May, Sir Colin and Lady Anderson, Mr and Mrs John Christopherson, Mr and Mrs Arthur Boyd, all of whom live in Hampstead, allowed members to visit their houses. This was an opportunity for which we were most grateful as it is visits like these which form such a unique part of the Society's activities. After seeing two very interesting collections, as well as some of Mr Christopherson's fine paintings, members completed a wonderful day by calling on Mr Arthur Boyd, who talked most interestingly about his paintings and ceramics. To all our hosts on this day we would like to extend our most grateful thanks.

The reasons we are meeting in these unfamiliar surroundings is that we no longer have as our headquarters the commodious subterranean offices we have occupied since the war. In October, much to our regret, but quite understandably, we were told that for security reasons we would have to vacate the old office as soon as possible. In November we moved into our newer but smaller premises near the side-entrance of the Tate Gallery and are gradually getting used to our new surroundings. We are more than grateful and indebted to the Trustees of the Tate for making room for us, as we know how short of accommodation they are for their own offices and storage space.

It has proved a most eventful and busy year for Miss Vogelpoel and her assistants (first Miss Ballantyne and now Mrs Wren). The final stages and closing down of "British Painting in the Sixties", which incidentally was a financial success, the trips and visits and tours and, on top of this, the move of our office with all its records and accumulated contents. It is remarkable that Miss Vogelpoel has managed to emerge from all this unscathed. I know you will wish me to offer to her and her assistants our congratulations and thanks.

We hope now to concentrate on an energetic membership campaign and have produced what we believe you will agree is a very intriguing and skilfully designed new membership brochure. Although we have lost surprisingly few members as a result of our increase in subscription, we are not gaining as many new members as we think we deserve.

One or two people have resigned because they can never take part in any of our "treats". To them of course we would like to say that the "treats" are only secondary to the real function of the Society, which is to buy good examples of painting and sculpture by living artists.

We want to expand the good work of the Society. This means more members and more money. May I appeal to you to help us in every way you possibly can.

Honorary Treasurer's Report 23 June 1964

For 1963 we show a deficit on Revenue Account of £1,751.5s. 6d. and a further deduction of £260 has been made from our Accumulated Funds for Estate Duty and Insurance on a Bequest. In other words we are just over £2,000 worse off financially at the end of the year than we were at the beginning. But I stress the word financially, for our funds have been transformed into works of art and that of course is the main reason for our existence.

Once again we allocated to our Buyers a sum of £4,000. But in addition we spent £3,420. 10s. 0d. on purchases and grants in connection with our exhibition of British Painting in the Sixties. After various slight adjustments, because our buyers never seem to manage to spend the precise amount of money they are allocated, our total expenditure on works of art was £7,396. 10s. 0d. easily the most for a single year in the course of our history.

We also spent £2,535 on our overheads, which is just over £200 more than in 1962, but does include an expensive new typewriter to lighten the burdens of our organising secretary.

There are two reasons why we were able to spend so much money on pictures with such a small_deficit. The first is that we had the benefit of a full year of the new increased subscription. As we feared might happen, we have lost some members, but our subscription income has risen from about £4,500 in 1961 to £6,300 in 1963, 1962 does not provide a true comparison, as the increases took effect in the middle of the year. The second reason is the triumphant success of "British Painting in the Sixties". Not only did we recover the whole of the considerable cost of the Exhibition, but we made a profit of £642, and received in addition a donation from B.P. for the showing in Zurich.

Our other sources of income are comparitively minor, but none-the-less welcome. The interest on our investments is less than last year, as we had to dispose of some of our reserves in order to buy pictures. Our receipts from parties are also down by about £65. The parties continue to be popular and successful, but as with everything else the costs mount steadily and we have been reluctant to pass the whole of the increase on to our members.

I have referred to our expenditure in connection with a bequest. Members will be able to see the Widdup pictures on exhibition at the Arts Council Gallery later in the year and will realise what a magnificent gift the Society has received. Dr Widdup also left us the reversionary interest in his house. This is in the process of being sold, but no account of it has been taken in the Balance Sheet.

The general pattern that emerges from our accounts shows a normal income of about £7,000 with overheads of about £2,500. There are inevitably various contingencies, such as the printing of a brochure in 1964, so that we are left with little more than £4,000 a year for the purchase of works of art. These continue to get more expensive and, as the Chairman has said, we do need much greater resources if we are to continue to satisfy the requirements of our subscribing galleries.

Report of the Auditors to the members of the Contemporary Art Society

We have examined the foregoing Balance Shect and Revenue Account and have obtained all the information and explanations which we considered necessary. In our opinion proper books of account have been kept by the Society and the Balance Sheet and Revenue Account, which are in agreement therewith, comply with the Companies Act, 1948, and respectively give a true and fair view of the state of the Society's affairs at 31 December, 1963, and of the deficit for the year ended on that date.
